

POLO MANZONI
Model United Nations

ACCOMODATION:

NB: Once you have decided to participate in our conference I recommend you book your hotel immediately because there are always a lot of Trade Fairs and commercial and university events in Milan so hotels get booked up quickly.

The hotels below are just a suggestion and have been used by our groups in the past. However there are many more hotels which obviously are not listed. When looking for accommodation remember University Bocconi is in the area of Porta Romana, Corso Lodi, Porta Venezia ,Corso Buenos Aires, Navigli as well as Central Station. These are all within easy travelling distance from the conference venue.

I cannot quote prices because they are forever changing according to period and type of room. It is best to check on their website also for offers.
Any prices quoted here are last year's prices.

LOCAL TRANSPORT

Milan has quite an efficient public service consisting of buses, trolley buses, trams and an underground with four lines (green, red and yellow and lilac).

TICKETS: One way trip € 1,50 valid for 90 minutes; Daily ticket € 4,50 valid for 24 hours without limitation of number of trips

You can get a two day ticket (bi-giornaliero) which allows you to travel on all kinds of transport and with no limitations on number of trips for a period of 48 hours and costs € 8.25.

Transport from Airports: Both Linate and Malpensa are well-served.

From Malpensa: Buses to Central Station - Cost Euro 10,00

Train Cadorna Express to Cadorna Station Cost Euro 11.00 (last year's price) where you can pick up the green line Underground -

From Linate: Buses to various central points in city - cost 4 Euros (approx)

Low Cost Flights Easyjet/RyanAir fly into all 3 Milan airports. This includes also Orio al Serio Bergamo. There is a bus which takes you into Milan: cost Euro 10,00

BUS TRANSFERS:

If you wish to book a bus transfer here are the approx. costs for a single trip (last year's prices)):

Malpensa - Milan centre Bus for 20 people:	297,00 VAT included
Linate - Milan centre Bus for 20 people:	220,00 VAT included
Linate - Milan centre Bus for 40 people:	253,00 VAT included

The company didn't give a quote for Malpensa for a Bus for 40 people but I would add between euro 30 - 50,00 approx.

If you decide for a bus transfer send me all flight and travel details and I will arrange it for you but payment will be sent to your school for payment by bank transfer.
